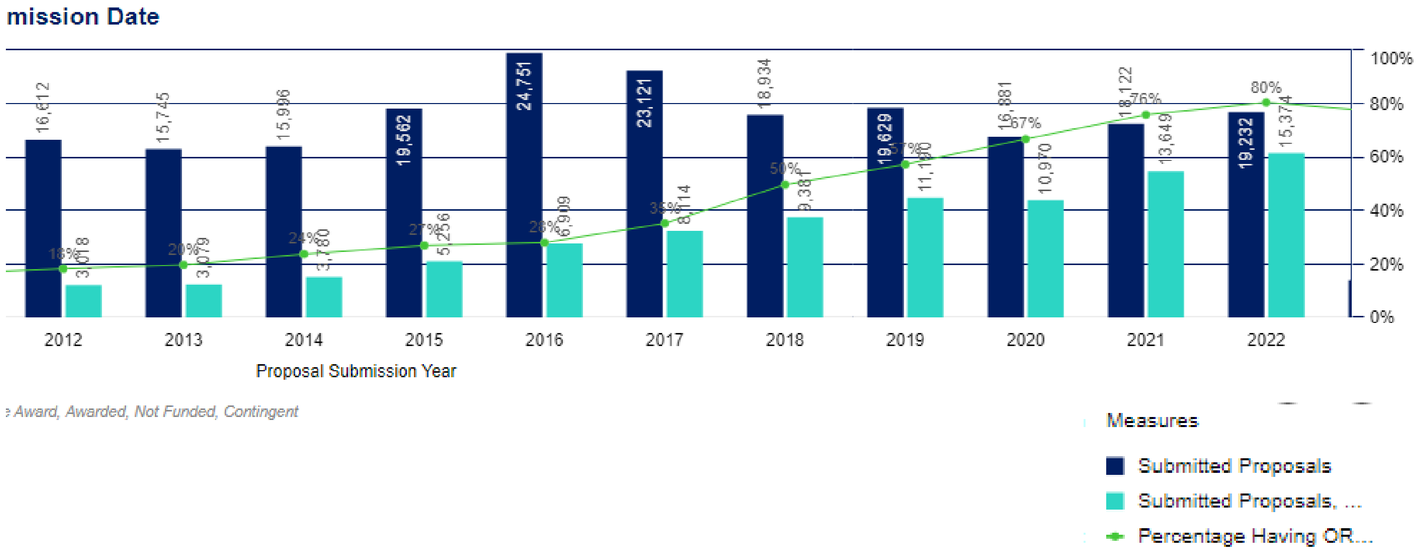
ORCID: one example of Altum industry leadership

Pioneered the adoption of ORCID among GMS vendors

- First ORCID certified service provider
- Robust 2-way integration



Committed to creating value for funders

- Altum ProposalCentral joined ORCID as a member/platform

80% of applicants have ORCID IDs

(ProposalCentral 2022)

ORCID in ProposalCentral

Applications & Deliverables

- ORCID IDs can be collected in applications as well as in deliverables in post-award
- Award records can be pushed to the researcher's ORCID profile.

Peer Review

- ORCID collection can be activated for Reviewers in PC
- When a funder activates ORCID ID collection for reviewers, peer review records can be pushed by the grant maker to update the Reviewer's ORCID profile.

User Profile

- Users may add ORCID information to their profile regardless of GM requirement

Provides ease of use, reuse of data & enables impact reporting for funders.

Syncing ORCID to PC

Information from PC and ORCID displays and users can select which records to update

There are a few fields that are required in PC so when syncing users must manually enter that information

Syncing ORCID to PC

Once a user's profile is linked to ORCID, PC regularly updates Funding and Publication data from ORCID to keep the data current in PC

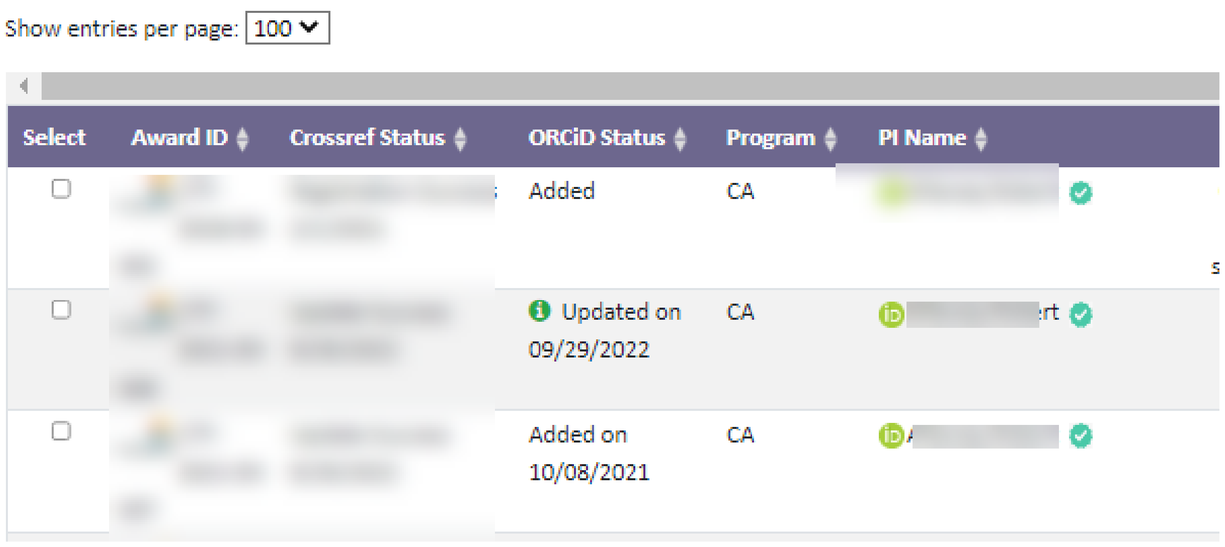
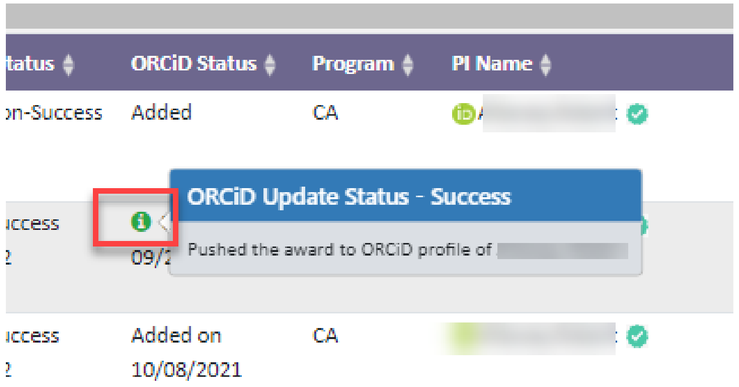
After selecting those to update and sending to ORCID, the award record is updated with an ORCID Status

PC also provides additional information to clarify ORCID update:



1. ORCID Status message



2. ORCID Trust indication

2023 Grants Management Forum

Don’t miss our Fall Forum!

Join Altum at our in-person event September 20-21 in Alexandria, Virginia.

The forum will bring together scientific funders who share a common interest in improving research grant making. We’ll explore some of the most pressing topics facing research funders, share trends, and learn best practices. The event will be designed to allow for collaboration, discussion, and networking.

Go to Altum.com and join our interest list via the banner at the top of the homepage.
